

CERTIFICATION OF TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Department of Nutritional Sciences University of Wisconsin-Madison

Section 1 is to be completed in duplicate by the instructor and the student when the arrangements are made prior to the course offering. One copy will be attached to the candidate's certification form. The second copy will remain in the department's file with the candidate's letters of recommendation. After the assigned duties are fulfilled, the instructor will complete section 2 of this form. This will be made available to professors as they write letters of recommendation for the student.
